S R E I

SELF-RELIANT
EMPOWERED INDIVIDUALS

SREI is a free ALL GIRLS' space where young women can learn, teach, and ask questions about Southeast Asian cultures, build healthy relationships, and talk about women's reproductive health. SREI seeks to empower young SEA women to identify long term goals in order to understand the economics of their lives, while making healthy decisions everyday for their bodies, themselves, their families and communities.

BONG SREI

“ o l d e r s i s t e r ” i n K h m e r

BONG SREI is Banteay Srei’s cascading mentorship and leadership program where alumni become youth leaders of Banteay Srei. They attend an intensive leadership training at the beginning of the academic calendar, develop curriculum and programming, co-facilitate workshops with the Community Health Specialist, and further develop their leadership skills. The Bong Sreis are mentored by the staff but also mentor the current youth participants.
